It is also proposed to have all the water craft on the Bay illuminated, and Lord Roberts will be asked to spend about half an hour viewing the illuminations. To this end the various aquatic clubs will be asked to do all in their power to make the boats on the bay as attractive as possible.

The Mayor will also issue a proclamation to-morrow asking the business men and citizens to illuminate and decorate their stores and residences along the route of the parade.

PLASTERERS' STRIKE IS PARTIALLY OVER

About Half of the Men Return to Work for Employers Who Pay Old Rate.

About half of the 350 plasterers who were locked out by their employers on July 1st will return to work to-morrow morning.

Twenty employers have agreed to retain the old standard of payment of fifty cents per hour, and for these only the men will work.

The other half of the plasterers are still idle, waiting until the remaining employers agree not to make the threatened reduction of ten cents per hour.

The plasterers' laborers were naturally forced to quit work when the plasterers were locked out. As many as are needed by the returning section of plasterers will go back with them to work in the morning.

BRIDOON, 4 TO 1, AT FORT ERIE

Abe Orpen's Horse Took First Race, and Toronto Men Won $10,000.

OPENED 5—1, CLOSED 3—1

Two Thousand From Toronto at Inaugural To-day—A Big Meet Promised.

Special to The Star.

Fort Erie, Ont., July 27.—One thousand Torontonians traveling by special train and a like number by boat swelled the crowd here to-day to more than 10,000. It was a perfect racing day, and thirty bookmakers attended to the needs of the betting public. In an elaborate new coat of paint and improvements the plant, under new management, was a perfect a racing institution as could be found in a day's march. New sheds have been laid in front of the grand stand. Beneath the grand stand proper the cashiers worked for boxes, but the layers themselves had to sit out in the sun in the open space between the paddock and the course. Joe Murphy and Frank Nolan were in the stand, while A. B. Dade did the starting. The day's program furnished by Secretary Muglan was up to the best standard and pleased every member of the big attendance. In the initial event the Toronto visitors cleaned up when Bridoon, well ridden by Jockey Bergen, gathered in the coin. There were no individual players of a spectacular character, but the money was laid systematically in small wagers. The result was that when Bridoon's number went up the Canadians had won upwards of $10,000. There was all the 5 to 1 one wanted early in the play, but the winner went to the post 3 to 1, a split favorite with Miss Crittenden.

FIRST RACE—Five furlongs:

1. Bridoon, 105 (Bergen), 4 to 1, by two lengths.
2. Miss Alvesco, 100 (G. Burns), 8 to 1 and 3 to 1.
3. Miss Crittenden, 105 (E. Martin), 3 to 5 to show.

Time, 1.03.

Bridoon was away in the first flight, and was never in difficulty. Miss Alvesonte caught the rail in the first quarter, and, avoiding the early pace, had a lot left at the end. Miss Crittenden, away badly, made up a lot, and was going great guns at the end. The balance o f the field was badly strung out at the finish.

Also ran—Lady Eleanor, Lady Clara, Santa Elena, Lady Ruby, Lady Hawes, 109 (W. Out), even, 1—3, out.

SECOND RACE—5 1-2 furlongs:

1. Dan De Noyes, 109 (W. Out), even, 1—3, out.
2. Pleasing, 106 (C. Ross), 3—4 place and 4-5 to show.
3. Maxim Gun, 103 (G. Burns), 7—5 show.

Time, 1.08 1-5.

Also ran—Ben Howe, Tod, and Lawyer Miller also ran.

ANOTHER BOY IS LOST IN THE DON

Joseph Colino, Aged Ten, Fell Into the River To-day From a Launch

NEAR GERRARD ST. BRIDGE

Body Was in the Water Three-Quarters of an Hour—Lived in Church Street.

At ten minutes to twelve to-day Joe Colino, an Italian lad, aged ten, fell into the Don River, almost under the Gerrard street bridge, and was drowned.

The lad was with George McLeod, son of John McLeod, shoemaker, 361 Church street, and George McIllerling, 99 McGill street. They were playing about the gasoline launch of Joseph Passmore, of Sackville and Gerrard streets, when Joe tumbled over the edge of the brass railing into the River.

Richard Cassidy Dived.

The cries of his companions brought Richard Cassidy to the rescue, and he dived. He located the exact spot so well that in diving he struck the lad.

The second time he missed him, and then Frank Lafontaine and J. W. Sutton, or 305 Parliament street, came up in a punt and with a pike pole assisted Cassidy in drawing the lad ashore. It was 12.30 before he was taken from the water. The police patrol launch, manned by Policemen Chapman and McKay, came up at this time, and the officers immediately began to work on the boy. Policeman Nursey summoned Dr. James E. Forfar, of 212 Carlton street, and the men, assisted by Donald C. Hart, worked heroically over the lad until 1.45, when hope was abandoned.

In spite of their every exertion the physicians, Chapman and McKay could do nothing, but change the color in the lad's cheeks. Every once in a while the lad's face would flush, and hope would again renew the efforts of the gallant quartette.

Passmore spends a deal of his time on the Bay front and goes to his home for dinner. He usually moors his launch at the bridge, and the lads, spying a new playground, at once began to investigate its possibilities. It was while little Joe was leaning over the railing that he lost his balance and tumbled in.

The scene attracted many spectators, and it was with great difficulty that the men were afforded room in which to work.

The dead lad lived at 375 Church street.

HIS LAST REPORT.

Letter From Late Commissioner Ball Received By Department To-day.

Special to The Star.

Ottawa, Ont., July 27.—Among the letters which reached the Trade and Commerce Department to-day was one from Peter Ball, late Trade Commissioner at Birmingham, news of whose death was published in this morning's papers. Mr. Ball's last report to the department received to-day deals with some interesting experiments which have been made in England on the remarkably beneficial effects of electricity as applied to the growth of farm crops.

THE LATE PETER B. BALL,

Canada's Commercial Agent at Birmingham, Eng., who died yesterday. Mr. Ball resided in Toronto at the time of his appointment.

SEARCHED HIS ROOM.

Police Found a Lot of Stuff Where Harry Williams Lodged.

A search was made of the room of Harry Williams, alias Arthur Cavanaugh, who is alleged to have entered four houses, by Detectives Orland and McKinney. The men visited a house in Duchess street and found two watches, a gold medal, a bag of copper coins, a razor, a silk handkerchief, with the letter "K" in a corner, and a diamond and a gold ring.

The Hamilton police believe they want Williams for housebreaking also, and the local authorities have located a quantity here of household stuff alleged to have been stolen by him in Hamilton.

CONNELLY'S BODY FOUND.

Woodsman Had Been Missing a Week at Port Arthur.

PRINCE SAILS WEDNESDAY, INDOMITABLE TO BREAK RECORD

For Trans-Atlantic Passage—Wholesale Desertions From Ships Likely, as Men are Dissatisfied—Launches in Collision—Quebec People Pleased With Toronto Policemen.

By a Staff Correspondent.

Quebec, Que., July 27.—A local railway man says the tourist traffic to Quebec will suffer terribly because of the extortionate prices charged poorly accommodated visitors.

"I am myself," he said, "paying half as much again as I used to for my laundry, my hotel is charging twenty-five cents more a meal than it did, and you have to fight for everything you get."

Toronto patronized the centenary probably better than any other city even than Montreal. The people here are delighted with the big Toronto constables.

Like Toronto Policemen.

"We asked both Montreal and Toronto for a squad, but Toronto alone acquiesced," they say. "The better class of people here are much pleased. We know they are picked men, but they are certainly a splendid lot."

A Toronto man, formerly from Quebec, who came down wondering what the papers were making all the fuss over, is now satisfied the pictures of the festivities were not overdrawn. "The pageants are simply wonderful," he said, after Saturday's performance.

Prince Visiting St. Anne's.

The Prince this morning is visiting the Chateu Bellevue at St. Joachim as the guest of the Quebec Seminary. The little village is some 25 miles down the river. His Royal Highness will probably visit St. Anne's on the way. He is to attend a naval regatta on the river this afternoon, in which the picked twelve-oar crew of the British fleet will race picked crews from the French and American fleets. The British crew come from the cruiser Arrogant, and the Jack Tars are confident of victory. A grand naval display occurs to-night.

Launches and Warships Collide.

Yesterday there were numerous collisions between launches from the warships. Last night as a launch belonging to the cruiser Minotaur was backing out from the King's Wharf, she was struck on the stern by a launch from the battleship Albemarle, which was going to the wharf. The Minotaur's boat was badly damaged, and one of her men thrown overboard. As soon as the accident occurred the searchlights from the British warships were directed on the scene, and in an incredibly short space of time boats from both the ships were rushing to the two colliding boats to render assistance. Fortunately their service was

U.S. NOT AS GENEROUS AS KAISER'S CABINET

Capt. Baldwin's Military Balloon Will Only Bring Him $6,750 if He Is Successful.

Washington, July 27.—If Capt. Thos. S. Baldwin succeeds in fulfilling all of the requirements of the Government in the trial flights of his military dirigible at Ft. Meyer he will receive $6,750, while Count Zeppelin will receive $600,000, from the German Government if all the requirements are fulfilled by his airship. The latter machine is 25 times as large as Captain Baldwin's dirigible.

Yet Captan Baldwin contends that in the balloon which he has built for the army, he has incorporated new ideas which will be eventually adopted by other nations in the construction of dirigibles. These new features are embodied in the gas envelope of Capt. Baldwin's machine, which differs widely from Zeppelin's, the Republique, the French dirigible, and the Nulli Secundus, the British military dirigible.

By his own process of vulcanizing rubber, Capt. Baldwin claims to have secured a material that will stand a strain of 95 pounds to the inch, and which is not affected by either heat or cold. In addition there is practically no elasticity to a gas bag made of this material, thus making a rigid balloon without the use of the frame.

The Fresh Air Fund.

The weather is warm again, and during August the poor will suffer from the heat. Please remember this, and remember, also, the Fresh Air Fund. It means what it implies—fresh air for the poor, whether young or old. There's nothing more interesting than a Fresh Air outing, and there's nothing more philanthropic. Send along your contribution—much or little.

Special to The Star.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., July 27.—At an Italian christening last evening in Little Italy, a row started, resulting in the death of one Italian and in another being badly wounded. Two brothers, Benny Ciacco and Charlie Ciacco, were pitted against Ike, Benny, and Alex. Sigliano, brothers, and another Italian, whose name is not known.

A MYSTERIOUS SHOOTING.

Cleveland Young Man Shot While Out Walking With Lady.

Cleveland, O., July 27.—A bullet wound just over his heart, a young man who is registered as Louis Weber, is said to be dying at Charity Hospital. Back of the shooting is a mystery which the police of Cleveland and Cleveland Heights, a fashionable suburb, where it occurred, had not been able to solve early this morning. The shooting occurred not far from the scene of the Carl Bornbaler and Lena Zeichman murder several months ago, and as far as is known, under somewhat similar circumstances. Weber was walking in the heights with a Miss Agnes Atkinson, the police say. Both principals say Weber was shot by two men, who disappeared as quickly as they came.

WOOD, SIMPSON, COTTER, AND LONGBOAT TO RUN WEDNESDAY

Manager Crocker to Show Canadians at Home That the Runners Were Strangely Affected by the Intense Heat—Team Will Sail for Home on Friday.

Special Cable From a Staff Correspondent of The Toronto Star.

London, July 27.—Manager Crocker and Coach Sherring are so disgusted over the result of the Marathon race and the showing made by the Canadian runners on Friday that they are looking around for some means to demonstrate to Canadians at home that the distance men are better than they showed in the big Olympic event.

With this end in view, and with the idea of proving that it was not the fast early pace that killed off the Canadians, Longboat, Simpson, Cotter, and Wood, will be sent over the course on Wednesday providing the weather is cool. It is the opinion of Crocker and Sherring that the intense heat knocked the men out.

"All of these men can cover the Marathon distance in 2 hours and 40 minutes," is Crocker's declaration.

The manager looks for big things on Wednesday from the Indian Simpson, who is now properly acclimatized. He is expected to win.

Manager Crocker is in Birmingham to-day making arrangements with the Alexander Birchfield Harriers to send a team of eight Englishmen to Canada next year. He has promised them union meets at Halifax, Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, and Hamilton.

The Canadian team has scattered and all but Savage, Keath, and Elliott will sail for home on Friday.

Tom Longboat has completely recovered, and will sail for New York on Wednesday evening, accompanied by Tom Flanagan.

MADE A NEW RECORD.

Canadian Associated Press.

Bisley, July 27.—Morris, Jones, and Bayles of the Canadian team each got a bronze medal in the service rifle championship.

Commandant Labelle and Adjutant King are both greatly pleased with the success the team has met with, their winnings making a new record.

Labelle and King, however, were much annoyed by the Spittal incident. The range officer's name was Moore, not Ward, as first reported. The Canadian Associated Press understands that during the firing at the 800 and 900 yards of the King's prize two range officers were lying down behind Spittal watching him.

Miss Roach, a domestic, employed in the household of Mr. Justice Riddell, will arrive at Police Headquarters at four o'clock this afternoon from Dumbarton, Ont., where she has been summering, to say whether the picture of William Bartell, under arrest in Chicago, is that of the man whom she saw loitering about the premises on the days preceding the robbery. When arrested Bartell had pawn tickets for $1,000 in his possession. Sergt. Verney explained that the amounts represented between $4,000 and $5,0000 worth of jewelry.
